

YOU'RE INVITED

Equitable Workplace, Equitable Society: Preventing Sex Trafficking in the Workplace

June 27, 2017

Boston City Hall, Room 900

8:30 a.m. Continental Breakfast

9:00 a.m.–12:00 p.m. Workshop

Sex trafficking — including sex buying — poses a risk to employers and harms vulnerable people in our community. This workshop will provide employers with new resources to create a more equitable work environment while protecting our youth, vulnerable women, and LGBTQ communities.

Who should attend? The workshop is designed for executives in human resources, corporate responsibility, public affairs, and legal departments in public and private organizations.

While a formal agenda is to come, you will learn the following:

- What sex trafficking is and who it impacts.
- How sex trafficking intersects with employers in Massachusetts.
- The risks sex trafficking poses to employers.
- Best practices to prevent sexual exploitation in the workplace.
- How to participate with Attorney General Healey and Mayor Walsh to launch an employer-led initiative to protect vulnerable people in Boston.

*We were happy to have so many of you as participants at the May 9 meeting. Please RSVP for this workshop by June 16 as space is limited. RSVPs should be sent to Brenna Callahan at Brenna.Callahan@boston.gov.
