

Our businesses deliver a broad range of products and solutions to customers in every corner of the globe, serving key industries such as transportation, infrastructure, environment and consumer. We provide performance solutions that solve customers' challenges today while preparing them to meet tomorrow's needs. Our commitment to innovation is driven by a passion to advance our customers' businesses through our deep understanding of their industries and the global trends that impact their operations.

- Leading global specialty chemicals and performance materials company.
- Delivers a broad range of products and solutions to advance its customers' businesses in the transportation, infrastructure, environment and consumer industries.
- Combines knowledge of customers' industries and global trends with technical expertise to create value through innovation and technology.

Sean Keohane, President, CEO

HEADQUARTERS

Boston, Massachusetts

STATS

- 4,500 employees globally; 44 manufacturing facilities in 21 countries
- Support programs that promote science, technology, engineering and math (STEM) education
- Became one of the first U.S. companies to operate in China by established joint venture with Shanghai Coking & Chemical Corporation, 1988
- Opened a carbon black plant in Stanlow, United Kingdom, making Cabot the first U.S. company to expand operations into Europe during reconstruction, 1948

CONTACT

cabotcorp.com

 @CabotCorp